

There have been no restructuring or reform initiatives since the last report. Currently, the BMHS staff is members of a High School Scheduling Committee and a High School Reform Committee. There have been no recommendations put forth from these committees to date. It is anticipated that the work of these committees will have a positive impact on BMHS.