Back

Nathan Hale Middle School first opened its doors in 1952, and has offered outstanding education for the city of Norwich ever since. The school was named after Captain Nathan Hale of the Continental Army, a 7th Connecticut Regiment. Hale was a graduate of Yale College and was working as a school teacher when the Revolutionary War began. After the British captured New York City in September of 1778, Captain Hale answered General Washington's call to return to the United States. He was captured by the British on September 21, 1778, and was executed on September 22, 1778. Nathan Hale is remembered as a patriot.
